Dear Nicky,

I saw your e-mail. Don't worry, I'm not mad. I can see why you would think I'm "inconsistent" and "not much of a team player." I mean, that time I covered for your girlfriend when she had an emergency? Totally selfish of me. And let's not forget the fact that I only called out sick two times in the past 4 years... how inconsistent of me! So yeah, I get it, I'm sorry you feel that way, but that's life, eh? I'm sure this store will be much better off without me. Good luck with everything.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

PS. I'm not coming in tomorrow, because fuck you.

Dear Mr./Ms./Mrs. [Manager's Last Name],

I am writing to formally notify you of my resignation from my [Position] position at [Company Name]. I was recently offered a new job opportunity with a company which is situated very close to where I am living and I have decided to take their offer.

Currently, I spend an average of ___ hours a day commuting from and to work and this new job opportunity will allow me more time with my family. My last day of employment with the company will be on [Date].

My ___ years at the company have been the best of my professional life. I know that I will miss my job and the people that I have had the pleasure of working with throughout the years.

Thank you so much for all the opportunities and experiences that you have provided me during my employment with the company.

I appreciate your support and understanding and I wish the company success in the future. Should you have any concerns about the transition with the replacement, you can contact me at [Contact Number] and [Email Address].

Thank you for your understanding on the matter.

Re: No Objection Certificate

Dear Sir / Madam:

This is with reference to Mr. Ryon Alan, who has been working as a Marketing Manager at Zebra Group since November 2011. Mr. Ryon Alan wants to visit Spain that's why he applied for visit visa for Spain.

Our company like to authenticate that we have no objection to traveling his to Spain trip. Our company has already given him permission or sanctioned a leave from 10 Dec 2017 to 10 Apr 2018. His annual salary is $70,000 and we also confirm the fact Mr. Ryon Alan can bear his expense on his own.

Please feel free to contact me if any further information is required.

Sincerely,

Dear John,

I would like to resign my position as (job title) with (company name) to leave (date).

I would like to take this opportunity to say that making this decision has been difficult, as working at (company name) has been such a positive experience and one for which I am grateful. I have gained much here and have enjoyed working with you and my other colleagues in (department/section/project).

However, I am excited about the new position I am undertaking and my decision is irrevocable as I am now legally bound by having signed a contract.

I am conscious of the need to provide support to the (name of the department) until my departure and I shall give my full commitment until then.

I wish (department and company) every success in the future and thank you for the opportunities I have been given during my time here.

Yours sincerely,
